This course is designed to satisfy the requirements for regulation 373/2017 for continued competence of persons involved in observation and reporting at a meteorological observation station.

The course includes recurrent (continuation) training and recurrent checking.

The course will also satisfy requirements for refresher training.

The course is normally scheduled for 2 days.

Contents

Refreshing

- Aviation Meteorology
- Meteorological Instruments and Measuring Techniques.
- Observations Standards for Routine Reports and METARs, including SPECIAL and SPECI.
- Reporting Standards for Routine Reports and METARs, including SPECIAL and SPECI.
- Application of reports in operations.
- Understanding and decoding of forecasts, Low level SIGWX charts.
- Radar and statistical forecasting models.
- AWOS and SAWOS.
- Competence Check

The course must be encompassed by your ATM/ANS management system, part-pers.